Champagne

2012 Taittinger Comtes de Champagne, Champagne, France

Champagne, with its cold climate, famous limestone soils and magnificent history, is home to the world's most famous sparkling wines. Family-owned for almost a century, Taittinger is one of the greatest independent Houses and Comtes de Champagne is their highly respected and revered prestige cuvée. Comtes de Champagne is made from 100% Chardonnay from Grand Cru villages in the Côte des Blancs - Avize, Cramant, Chouilly, Mesnil-sur-Oger and Oger. This is a brilliant champagne and a textbook example of Blanc de Blancs at its best, displaying great intensity and acid line, with complex and classic toasty notes from over 10 years of aging in bottle. Spectacular!

Krug Grande Cuvée, Champagne, France

Krug is undisputably one of the greatest Champagne Houses, and Grande Cuvée the archetype of their craftsmanship and savoir-faire. This prestige cuvée is a blend of more than 120 wines from ten or more different years. The champagne is then aged for a further 6 years in the cellars prior to release. Over 20 years are needed to craft each bottle. Stylistically, Grande Cuvée combines power with finesse- a brilliant Champagne of great quality and individuality.

2007 Charles Heidsieck Blanc des Millénaires, Champagne, France.

Champagne, with its famous limestone soils and cold climate, makes the world's greatest and most famous sparkling wines. Charles Heidsieck was established in 1851 by Charles, a scion of the famous Heidsieck family, and today is one of the most admired and exciting Houses in Champagne. Blanc des Millénaires is their Prestige Cuvee and is made entirely from Chardonnay grapes grown on some of the greatest sites in the Cote des Blancs sub-region. At over 15 year old this wine is proof of the longevity of these wines and has developed wonderful toasty aged Chardonnay characters from extended time in bottle. In short an exceptional Blanc des Blancs Champagne of great quality and individuality.

2020 Von Hovel Saar Riesling Kabinett, Germany

As the world warms around us, it isn't a bad idea to wonder - where do the coolest vineyards exist? Well, Germany is the coolest of the great wine nations, and the tiny Saar river that trails up to the Mosel Valley near Trier is not only home to the coolest of this cool nation's fine wine regions, but it is the windiest region as well. The grapes never hurry to ripeness on these steep slopes of blue slate, and the Saar Rieslings are the crispest and juiciest in Germany. Von Hovel is a 7th generation family estate which creates wines of a thrilling electric tension between lime pith and lemon flower acidity, a whisper of stony slate and the mouthwatering juiciness of fresh-pressed ripe green apple juice.

2019 Giant Steps Sexton Vineyard Chardonnay, Yarra Valley, Australia

The cool climate of the Yarra Valley east of Melbourne is particularly well suited to growing Chardonnay of exceptional quality. Giant Steps was founded in 1997 by visionary Phil Sexton with the wines made by talented winemaker Steve Flamsteed, recipient of the Winemaker of the Year Award in 2016. The name "Giant Steps" comes from jazz great John Coltrane's album. Based in Healsville, they make outstanding Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from vineyards in both the Lower and Upper Yarra Valley. This wine is pale straw in colour with concentrated aromas of ripe peach and nectarine, together with just a hint of lanolin and apple custard.

2019 Albert Bichot Corton Grand Cru, Burgundy, France

The first traces of the Bichot family date back to 1214 -- the family's coat of arms has not changed since nor has its symbol, a doe (biche). Albert Bichot joined the company in the 90s. He is convinced that good quality wine depends on good quality grapes. This Corton Grand Cru is grown on a vineyard with brown limestone soil overlying very clayey scree in the Côte de Beaune area. 100% Pinot Noir grapes are handpicked and aged in 100% oak barrels. Fine and elegant, this robust wine also has a supple structure with harmonious tannins which give way to a long finish intensively flavoured by fruity notes.

2006 Château Léoville-Poyferré, Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France

This splendid estate covering 80 hectares of vines in the best part of the Médoc was named a Second Growth in 1855 and has retained this high status ever since. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Cabernet Franc are harvested at their peak of ripeness to make this classic Saint-Julien wine which has been described as "quintessential claret." Carmine-ruby in colour, with fragrantly intense aromas of red and black berries, this rich combination of fruit on the palate is balanced by an elegantly firm finish.

2018 Magari Gaja Ca'marcanda Bolgheri DOP

Primary flavors of blackcurrant and plum show a pleasant tangy edge that lends verve to this Bordeaux-style blend. Its tannins are like new leather, firmly guiding the fruit tones without overwhelming them. Hints of licorice and graphite emerge with air, and the dark fruit mingles with iodine notes on the long, seamless finish. This is a delicious and elegant rendering of Magari.

Fortified

Graham's 20 Year Old Tawny Port

With twenty years of cask aging, this Port has acquired a gorgeous aroma of dried flowers, toffee, sweet spices and dried figs. The tannins have softened and evolved into a silky texture with subtle, layered flavours that are persistent on the finish. A beautifully balanced Port that can be enjoyed on its own or with cheese or dessert.
